Donations and Payment

Q: What donation forms are available?

A: There are two main ways to donate

- Sponsor a specific child long-term. Options for monthly, quarterly, or annual payments are available. The process is mentioned below;
- Not sponsor a specific child and just make a general donation for the project at your convenience.

Q: How is the organization funded?

A: We are funded through sponsorships, donations, and fundraising events.

Q: How can I make payments for sponsorship?

A: Payments can be made via direct bank transfer.

Account in Vietnam:

Q: Are my sponsorship contributions tax-deductible?

A: Yes, as we are registered as a non-profit association in Germany (Registration number: VR 17294), your donation is tax-deductible. This is only applicable to donors living in Europe and making contributions to our German bank account. Please provide your full address if you would like a donation receipt.

Q: Can I make non-monetary donations?

A: Currently we only accept monetary donations. However, you can also support us by sharing this project with others to help raise awareness.

Q: How can I know that the money is used for the correct purpose?

A: All donations made to our bank account are used to support the project. Currently all donations go directly to the children. A record of our bank transactions is available upon request. We also provide regular updates on the project's progress through our social media channels.

Sponsorship Program Details

Q: What is the process to sponsor a child long-term?

A:

- Step 1: If you are interested in the sponsorship program, please contact us via Instagram, Facebook or email for further information.
- Step 2: We will send you the program brochure and most asked questions.
- Step 3: If you decide to join, we will provide the agreement along with details about a child.
- Step 4: Once you sign the agreement, you will become a sponsor in the scholarship program.

Q: Who can sponsor a child?

A: Sponsorship is open to everyone—individuals, families, companies, and organizations are all welcome to participate. You can choose to sponsor one child, or more than one; you and your friends can also sponsor a child as a group, based on your capability.

Q: How are children selected for sponsorship?

A: Children are selected for the program based on their financial need and academic potential, with guidance from our local partners, including schools and the Youth Union which have deep insight into the children's circumstances and the local community. Additionally, parents must commit to ensuring their child completes their education, signing an agreement that the child will not drop out of school midway to maintain eligibility for the program.

Q: Can I choose the child I want to sponsor?

A: No, to ensure all disadvantaged children have equal opportunities, we randomly assign a child for you to sponsor.

Q: Will I receive updates about the child I am sponsoring?

A: Yes, you will receive updates once a year, which may include annual reports, photos, or videos.

Q: Can I communicate with the child I am sponsoring?

A: Direct communication is not permitted to protect the child's safety and privacy. However, if you wish to send a letter of encouragement, we will facilitate the delivery of your message.

Sponsorship Commitment

Q: Is the sponsorship legally binding?

A: Sponsorship is not legally binding. There are no contractual obligations, and you may cancel at any time, though a minimum commitment of one year is preferred.

Q: What is the commitment period for sponsoring a child?

A: A minimum commitment of one year is recommended, but sponsors are encouraged to support the child for as long as possible to ensure continuity in their education.

Q: Can a child have multiple sponsors?

A: No, each child will have only one sponsor.

Ending Sponsorship

Q: What happens if I need to end my sponsorship?

A: If you need to end your sponsorship, please notify us via email at least one month in advance. We will work to find another sponsor to ensure the child's education continues without interruption.

Q: What happens if the child I sponsor no longer needs support?

A: If the child graduates or no longer needs support, we will inform you via email and provide the option to sponsor another child or end the sponsorship.
